

UNA★USA

UNA-USA CALENDAR OF ACTIVITIES FOR THE 63RD SESSION OF THE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN NEW YORK, NY

Thursday March 14
12:30 PM

UNA-USA San Diego, in partnership with UNA New Zealand

Non-Binary Identities and Social Security Systems: Challenges and Opportunities

Church Center for the United Nations, Tenth Floor Room

This panel in partnership with UNA New Zealand highlights the importance of the legal recognition of non-binary identities as key to broad access to social security networks and examines good practices, current challenges, and opportunities within the context of the evolving understanding of gender identities and sexuality and a perspective that questions binary gender identities.

Wednesday March 20
2:30 PM

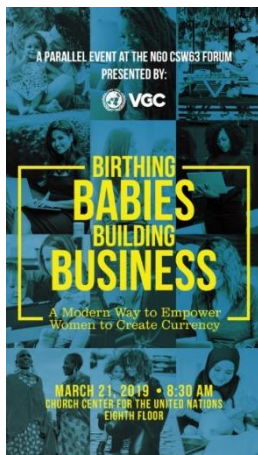

UNA-USA Hawaii

Gender Justice in the UN Sustainable Development Goals through the Voluntary National Review Process

Church Center for the United Nations, Eighth Floor Room

The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development encourages UN member states to conduct voluntary, state-led reviews involving multiple stakeholders. In this discussion co-sponsored by Land is Life, women advocates will share recommendations and best practices from a human rights approach for states being reviewed under the VNF at the high-level political forum.

Thursday March 21
8:30 AM

UNA-USA Greater Detroit and Virtual Global Consultant Group

Birthing Babies and Building Business is Synonymous: A Modern Way to Empower Women to Create Currency

Church Center for the United Nations, Eighth Floor Room

This event, co-sponsored by The Greater Detroit Chapter of the United Nations Association (GDUNA) and The Virtual Global Consultant Group (VGC Group), aims to promote empowerment by teaching women how to build business online to compete and thrive in the global market. This event caters to women who desire to both build a family and be financial providers, primarily through building a business. It will spotlight the challenges and ongoing struggles of women in the city of Detroit, Michigan, which is on the road to economic recovery.